Dear Mr. Young:

This is in final response to your request under the Access to Information Act for: Copies of reports, documents, briefing notes and correspondence that would support the Health Minister's statement that abortions are a "medically necessary service".

Following a search for the requested information, one record was identified as relevant to your request. The record is withheld from disclosure in its entirety, as it qualifies for exemption under sub-sections 14(a) [federal-provincial consultations or deliberations] of the Act.

You have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner of Canada about any matter pertaining to the processing of your request, within one year from the date your request was received by this Department. A complaint should be directed to the following address: Information Commissioner at 112 Kent Street, 22nd floor, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 1H3.

If you have any questions or concerns about any aspect of the processing of your request, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lisa Banister
Analyst
